CATALOGUE

OF THE

HYDE PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY.

1874.

HYDE PARK:

PRINTED AT THE NORFOLK COUNTY GAZETTE OFFICE.

1874.

NOTES.

THE accompanying list, it will be borne in mind, is merely an index to the catalogue proper, which is kept on slips at the librarian's desk, and which it is intended to make as complete as possible. Further information concerning any book in this list will at any time be furnished on inquiry at the desk, in case the information should be at hand.

Titles of books therefore will here be found given in a condensed form, and names of authors, with initials of all but surnames; except where more than this is necessary for purposes of distinction.

In cases of authors who are married ladies, the initials of the name are preceded by the prefix Mrs.; while the first name of unmarried ladies is spelled in full. Where a name is spelled in more than one way the main entry is made under that which has the best authority, with cross-references from the other forms. The same principle is followed in the case of pseudonyms, or assumed literary names; and of British and continental titles of nobility. E. g., GEORGE Eliot. See Lewes, Mrs. M. (G.) [E.] HOUGHTON, lord. See Milnes, R. M.

The main entry is invariably given under the author's name at the time of writing, if living; or, if dead, under the name which was borne at death; cross-references being given from names previously borne, whether changed by marriage or otherwise. Cross-references are also given from the husband's names of married ladies. E. g., Slidell, A. See MacKENZIE, A. S.; MAHON, lord. See Stanhope, P. H., earl of; TERRY, Rose. See Cooke, Mrs. R. [T.] Stowe, Mrs. Calvin E. See STOWE, Mrs. H. (E.) [B.]

Parentheses, when used in the title, enclose parts of it which are transposed from their proper position; when used in the name of the author they enclose initials of names which are habitually neglected by the authors. E. g., Dickens, C. (J. H.)

Brackets, when used in the title, enclose words which are additional to the title-page of the book; when used in the name of the author they indicate the initials of maiden names retained by married ladies. E. g., GUILD, Mrs. C. S. [W.]

The abbreviations in use, in addition to Mrs., Mme., jr., etc., are such as easily to be understood; E. g., v., volume, n.d., no date, v.d., various dates, fr., from, sm., small, sq., square, tr., translated, pub., published, sequ., sequel to, anon., anonymously, pseud., pseudonym or "under a pseudonym." Ed.,—commenced with a capital,—stands for editor; and ed. for edition. Names of places of publication are abbreviated, where it is possible, into four letters; E. g., Ednb., Edinburgh, Htfd., Hartford; and names of states are given in brackets where it seems to be necessary; E. g., Camb. [Ms.] It is hardly necessary to say that where a work is translated from a foreign language, Gr. is used for Greek, Heb. for Hebrew, Lat. for Latin, It. for Italian, Sp. for Spanish, Fr. for French, Germ. for German, Dan. for Danish, Sw. for Swedish, Nor. for Norwegian, Russ. for Russian, Sanscr. for Sanscrit, Pers. for Persian, and Ar. for Arabic.

Each book is recorded under the name of the author, the first word of the title, not an article, and the subject. The main entry occurs under the author's name, when known, and under the title when unknown. A book which is a collation is entered under the title, with cross-references from the name of the editor. Under a given subject the list of works is given in the alphabetical order of the authors' names; with the single exception of biographies. Under this head the works are arranged in the alphabetical order of the persons whose lives are recorded. Under the name of a person, works of which he is the author stand first, in their alphabetical order, and afterwards works of which he is the subject. Where a book has a joint title the main entry is made under the first or principal one, with a cross-reference from the other. E. g., MAIDEN (The) of the mist. See Anne of Geierstein.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

FIRST—The Library shall be open every day, except Sundays and legal holidays, from two to half-past five o'clock, and from half-past six to nine o'clock P.M.

SECOND—Residents of Hyde Park, over twelve years of age, may use the Library upon signing a promise to obey its rules, and may take from it one book at a time; but cannot loan it out of their respective households, and no family can have more than three volumes at one time. Each applicant under sixteen years of age, must bring a certificate from his teacher, or some other responsible person known to the Trustees, that he is worthy of trust.

THIRD—Every borrower will receive a printed card bearing his name, and upon a slip accompanying this must write the shelf-mark of the volume wanted. The presentation of this card and slip is the only mode of obtaining a book.

FOURTH—Books may be kept out two weeks, and renewed for one week longer. If retained more than two weeks, without renewal, a fine of two cents a day, thereafter, will be incurred, and at the end of three weeks all books will be sent for at the borrower's cost, and until they are either returned or replaced, and all charges paid, the borrower will forfeit the use of the Library. The Trustees may, by a notice affixed to a new book, require its earlier return, and it cannot be renewed or retaken by any member of the same household until after the lapse of one week.

FIFTH—For the loss or injury of books the Library must be made good. If a volume lost belongs to a set, and cannot otherwise be supplied, the whole set must be replaced, to the satisfaction of the Trustees, the loser being entitled to the broken set. The assessments of the Librarian for damages may be subject to an appeal to the Trustees.

SIXTH—All books must be returned for examination every year, on or before the first Monday in February, and none will be re-issued until at least one week thereafter, and upon every book not returned at the time named a fine of fifty cents will be levied and the book sent for at the cost of the delinquent.

SEVENTH—Any person entitled to the use of the Library desiring the addition to it of any book, must give to the Librarian, for record, its full title, the name of the author, if known, and his own name. Should such book be added, it shall be reserved for the applicant one library-day.

EIGHTH—Every volume added to the Library, by gift, shall bear a label with the name of the giver and date of the gift.

NINTH—No book shall be admitted into the Library, or, being admitted, shall be allowed to remain, to which three members of the Board shall object.

TENTH—Books of reference, and all of special variety or value, can be used only at the Library, and will each be labelled "Not to be taken away."

ELEVENTH—Visitors to the Library will step lightly, keep silence, avoid smoking, and in all things deport themselves with the decorum befitting the purposes of the place.

TWELFTH—One copy of the Catalogue of the Library will be given to the head of each family in the town, upon application to the Librarian, who will also have copies for sale at a price fixed by the Trustees.

THIRTEENTH—The Librarian shall have charge of the Library-rooms, and be responsible for the due care of all they contain. He shall keep them in order, and ventilate, warm and light them, as need requires. He shall cover and number the books, put upon each its label and stamp, shelve them in such order and prepare such catalogues, lists and forms as the Trustees may prescribe. He shall record the title and author of each book, and its accession number, and, if in a set, the number of volumes, the cost, date of reception, place and time of publication; and, if a donation, its estimated value, and the name of the donor, and shall return to him a written acknowledgment of thanks in behalf of the Trustees. No book shall be loaned until thus made ready for use. He shall record the name of every person taking books from the Library, the number of each book taken, the date of delivery, and date of return. He shall be present, in person or by a substitute approved by the Trustees, whenever the Library is open. He shall assess damages, and record and collect all dues to the Library, stating by whom incurred and when paid, and shall pay monthly to the Treasurer the money thus received. He shall report violations of the by-laws to the Trustees. He shall, every year, during the week following the first Monday in February, present to the Trustees a detailed report of the condition of the Library, its operations during the year, all additions to it by purchase and by gift, with the names of the donors, and any other information which the Trustees may require.

These duties of the Librarian are subject to such modifications as the Trustees may from time to time prescribe.

FOURTEENTH—The Board of Trustees shall exercise a general supervision of the Library, provide printed catalogues of its books containing its rules, select and purchase books, choose and contract with a Librarian, and decide appeals from his decision. They shall receive all money accruing to the Library, pay its debts, and draw from the town treasury, upon the order of the Selectmen, all appropriations made by the town for its use, and shall at the annual town meeting report in detail its operations during the year, its condition, with an account of all moneys received and expended by them. They shall have power to suspend persons from the privileges of the Library for flagrant violations of its rules. The Board shall meet on the second Monday of each month for the transaction of any business pertaining to the Library.
